

Veidekke AS paving the runway on Kristiansund airport. This is a night job in the middle of the summer, but since they are in Norway it is not getting dark there.

TransTech Systems started partnering with companies in Europe in the early 2000's. A relationship was formed with ABAS AS in 2001, and together we have continued to grow the market, the understanding of non-nuclear technology and density leadership throughout the Nordic Region.

ABAS AS has been in business for 30 years, and employs 3 employees. Let us introduce you to our partner, ABAS AS:

Where are you headquartered?
 And additional office locations:

ABAS AS is headquartered in Lierskogen, Norway. Denmark, Finland, Iceland, and Sweden are represented by dealers and a sales representative.

Where does ABAS AS provide sales for the TransTech product line?

ABAS AS provides sales, service, and technical support in Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden.

Who are your primary customers for the non-nuclear gauges?

The top 3 customers for ABAS AS include: Veidekke Industri AS, NCC Roads AS and Skanska AB.

Additional information about ABAS AS:

ABAS AS started in the road building machinery business 30 years ago. The company started with Hamm Road Rollers in 1983. Grade Line and Moba leveling/machine guidance, then Benninghoven asphalt plants and IR-ABG pavers and rollers. ABAS AS began representing TransTech products in May of 2001. Within the first year, ABAS AS sold 15 PQI's Model 300 and 301).

Other products offered by ABAS AS include asphalt plants, machine guidance, leveling equipment, laser and ultrasound sensors, infrared heaters, and machine trailers. They also offer repair and service to all product lines.

Veidekke AS and Statens Vegvesen testing PQI 380 asphalt density gauges.

Who should customers contact at ABAS AS?

For inquiries about the TransTech product line, please contact Ingvald Askeland.

Email: ingvald.askeland@abas-as.no • Phone: + 32 24 35 30 • Website: www.abas-as.no

