

Atlantic Supply and TransTech Systems demonstrate usage of the SDG 200 Non-Nuclear Soil Density Gauge to the Florida DOT

TransTech Systems and Atlantic Supply have been partners in the construction industry for over a decade. This relationship has expanded in recent years, to become both a domestic and an international partnership. Atlantic Supply has been in business for 27 years, and employs 35 employees in multiple locations. Let us introduce you to our partner, Atlantic Supply:

Where are you headquartered?

And additional office locations:

Atlantic Supply is headquartered in Largo, Florida. Other locations include Orlando, FL; Riviera Beach, FL; Jacksonville, FL; Montgomery, AL.

Who should customers contact at Atlantic Supply?

For inquiries about the TransTech product line, please contact Carlos Licona.

Email: clicona@atlanticsupply.com Phone: 800-752-9416 Website: www.AtlanticSupply.com

Where does Atlantic Supply provide sales for the TransTech product line?

Atlantic Supply represents TransTech Systems non-nuclear asphalt density gauges (Models 301 and 380), as well as the non-nuclear soil density gauge (Model 200). We offer these products in Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana; and most recently added Puerto Rico, Mexico, Costa Rica and Panama to our sales territory.

Who are your primary customers for the TransTech product line?

We sell to private contractors, state and local government, military, and universities. Current top customers using the TransTech Pavement Quality Indicator, Model 380 are City of North Port, State of Florida DOT, Lake County and Eastern Asphalt.

Additional information about Atlantic Supply:

Atlantic Supply is a stocking distributor for all of your materials testing needs, specializing in concrete, soil, asphalt and aggregate testing equipment. Atlantic Supply is a full service, sales and calibration company. Drilling supplies are stocked for water well drilling, environmental drilling, geotechnical drilling, direct push drilling, directional drilling and foundation drilling. With five strategically located warehouses, Atlantic Supply is fully stocked with drill bits, bentonite drilling mud, pump and related repair parts, drill rods and casing, water swivels, split spoons, augers, subs, manholes, locking plugs, bailers, flush-threaded PVC and open end PVC, prepacks and much more.

